

GETTING STARTED. . .

Thank you for choosing to support War Child by coordinating a fundraising event! Your support and dedication to our cause furthers our ability to provide much needed funds to children and families affected by war.

Before you start planning your event here are a few tips and questions to consider:

REGISTER

Have you registered? Be sure to register your event here: www.warchild.ca/volunteerevents

THINGS TO CONSIDER:

1. What is your tentative event date?
2. What type of event is it?
3. What is the name of your event?
4. Where will you be holding the event?
5. Who is on your planning committee?
6. Have you collected committee member contact information?
7. Describe your event
8. How will you promote your event?
9. What type of support do you need?
10. What is your fundraising goal?

RAISE AWARENESS

A huge part of organizing events is the awareness about War Child that it generates.

Check out the following sites and ways you can spread the word about War Child or your event:

War Child website: www.warchild.ca

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/warchildcan>

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/War-Child-Canada/10359721433?ref=ts>

Better the World: <http://warchild.bettertheworld.com/home>

War Child's mission is to empower children and young people to flourish within their communities and overcome the challenges of living with, and recovering from, conflict. To achieve this, War Child works collaboratively with those communities to:

- Increase access to education, especially for girls and young women.
- Overcome the obstacles of poverty and economic marginalization.
- Create a protective environment for the rights of children and youth.