

What is War Child?

War Child works with children all over the world to mitigate poverty, provide education and to defend their rights. We work tirelessly to help children whose lives have been torn apart by conflict and provide them with the means to build a brighter future

What does War Child do?

Every year, War Child provides support to more than 200,000 children and their families in conflict and post-conflict communities around the world through:

Education, Child Rights, Poverty Reduction

Why is War Child Needed?

Consider the statistics:

- Two thirds of all casualties in war are children.
- 18 million children have been forced to flee their homes because of war in the last decade.
- There are more than 300,000 child soldiers fighting in wars worldwide.
- The most important determinant of whether a child will live to see his or her fifth birthday is access to education.
